

CWC Events Cancellation Policy

as ratified by the CWC Executive Team

If the CWC cancels the event:

Options:

1. The payment will be returned if a cash payment was received or the cheque will be destroyed
2. The payment will remain with the CWC office to be credited to a future event (a record of the individual member's credit held by the CWC will be kept by the CWC Office and is available for the member to view at any time).

If Attendees withdraw their names from attending an event:

Options:

1. The attendee can leave the payment with the CWC office to be credited to a future event (a record of the individual member's credit held by the CWC will be kept by the CWC Office and is available for the member to review at any time)
2. The attendee can resell their ticket to another but must inform the event leader of the new name to comply with possible security issues for certain venues
3. If the attendee cancels after the RSVP date (unless otherwise specified by the event leader), the ticket will be considered sold.
